Freedom of Information Act Request

I am writing to request the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

- How many patients have been treated in A and E in 2024 where the clinician has recorded that their condition was result of complications from weight loss jabs, like semaglutide or tirzepatide.

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request. After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we do not hold the information you have requested.

We don't note down to this detail, for either the specified drugs or drugs surrounding either weight loss or diabetes type 2.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we are only required to provide information that we hold at the time of the request. Unfortunately, we do not possess the information you are seeking.

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to request an internal review.

Requests for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days from the date of this response, and should be addressed to d.wraith@nhs.net.

If you remain dissatisfied after the internal review, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

The ICO can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office Wycliffe House
